

READY FOR THE UNEXPECTED?

*You will go out in joy
and be led forth in peace;
the mountains and hills
will burst into song before you,
and all the trees of the field
will clap their hands.*

Isaiah 55:12

I've been mulling over where I've found the greatest joy in my life. Wondering—can I find it again?

It seems to me it has often come as a surprise that I had least expected. And I realize we always have to be ready for such surprises. To keep our hands and our eyes open to receive the joy when it comes.

Photographers work like that. Always ready for the moments they know will come.

Ready when that little bee flies into our line of focus unexpectedly.

Joy often comes in the little things—the priceless moments God brings.

Are you ready?
