

HE KNOWS MY ALL

He was despised and rejected by mankind,
a man of suffering, and familiar with pain.
Like one from whom people hide their faces
he was despised, and we held him in low esteem.

Surely he took up our pain
and bore our suffering,

Isaiah 53:3-4

I'm sure many of you must have had times when your heart cried out, "I need someone who will truly hear me! Someone who will understand my pain! I need someone who's willing to stand in my shoes and feel what it's like. Someone who will empathize. Someone who will know my all."

© marja Bergen
Copy to your heart's content. Share. But don't sell.

The scripture above tells us that we have such a person in Jesus Christ. No one could understand better than Jesus does.

Although written 700 years before Christ's birth, the prophet Isaiah foreknew his story. He foreknew the suffering that Jesus would undergo. Isaiah's words describe Christ's pain as though he himself understood the depth of it. Through the words he's left us, we are assured that Jesus knows our pain full well. He himself had been despised and rejected.

Do those words describe how you feel at times?

Draw comfort from knowing that Jesus has been there. He fully understands. You're not alone. Jesus is with you.

He knows your all.

marja